

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH
CENTRAL DIVISION

Counsel for Defendant moves to continue the February 22, 2011 trial because the government recently provided additional discovery and defense counsel needs additional time to review that discovery.<sup>1</sup> The government has stipulated to the continuance.

The Court finds that Counsel has not provided sufficient information for the Court to grant the requested continuance. The Tenth Circuit has explained:

Our decisions . . . indicate that the record, which includes the oral and written statements of both the district court and the moving party, must contain an explanation of why the mere occurrence of the event identified by the party as necessitating the continuance results in the need for additional time. A record consisting of only short, conclusory statements lacking in detail is insufficient. . . . Simply identifying an event, and adding the conclusory statement that the event requires more time for counsel to prepare, is not enough.<sup>2</sup>

In United States v. Larson,<sup>3</sup> the Tenth Circuit has further explained what is insufficient for the Court to make the required ends-of-justice findings necessary to exclude time. As in Larson, in the present case there is no information on “how much time defense counsel need[s] to prepare for trial and what preparations he has already made.”<sup>4</sup> Without this type of information, the Court can not “adequately determine whether denying the continuance would deprive defense counsel of the ‘reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.’”<sup>5</sup> It is therefore ORDERED that Defendant’s Stipulated Motion to Continue Trial Date (Docket No. 14) is DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

DATED February 23, 2011.
